

It's the best thing that has ever happened to New Jersey. I don't receive anymore telemarketing calls which I love and my days are so much better than having to deal with talking to them.